Dear Landowner:

Re: East County Water Control District – Amended Water Control Plan for Unit of Development No. 5, as amended

The East County Water Control District, “ECWCD”, located in Lehigh Acres and Hendry County, is a “Special District”, governed by Florida State Statute and is responsible for providing water management services for property within its boundaries of which you are a landowner. The District maintains 311 miles of canals, 20 lakes, 1298 preserve acres, 360 culvert crossings, 22 bridges and 66 water control structures which are contained in the “Water Control Plan”.

ECWCD is required to review and update its “Water Control Plan” every five (5) years, and to the extent necessary, amend the Plan. The Amended Water Control Plan lists the proposed repairs, maintenance and updates for the canals, lakes, preserves, culvert crossings, bridges and water control structures along with the additional proposed improvements.

The Notice on the reverse side of this letter is provided to inform you that the Board of Supervisors of the ECWCD has determined to go forward with consideration of the Amended Water Control Plan for Unit of Development No. 5, as amended, to provide for the further development of the District’s water management facilities and to implement the District’s 2008-2012 Proposed Projects.

The date, time and place of the Public Hearing on this matter is January 28, 2008, at 6:30 P.M. at the Majestic Golf Club located at 350 Homestead Road S., Lehigh Acres, Florida 33936.

The purpose of the Public Hearing is to receive public comment on whether the District should proceed with the adoption of the proposed Amended Water Control Plan for Unit of Development No. 5, as amended.

If you have any questions on this proceeding or desire to review the materials upon which the Board of Supervisors will rely to make a decision, you may contact the District at (239) 369-1017, and ask for Paula Camberato, during the hours of 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Eastern Standard Time, Monday through Thursday (Closed Friday).
